STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER GRANTING LEAVE TO FILE UNDER SEAL, VOLUME 1
OF 2

PUBLIC VERSION

STIPULATION

Pursuant to Local Rules 7-12 and 79-5, and the Court's Standing Order, Plaintiffs and Defendant, through their respective counsel, submit the following stipulation and [proposed] order granting Defendant Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Defendant") leave to file permanently under seal the materials described below.

WHEREAS, in the course of the discovery the parties have produced and disclosed confidential, proprietary, and other private information related to the parties, as well as Defendant's clients, designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to the parties' Stipulated Protective Order signed by the Court on March 10, 2009, and filed in the above captioned action on March 11, 2009 ("Designated Produced Materials"), for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted;

WHEREAS, the parties agree that confidential, proprietary, and other private information related to the parties, as well as Defendant's clients, will also be included in or discussed in the parties filings on the Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification ("Designated Motion Materials");

WHEREAS, the parties agree that the Designated Produced Materials and Designated Motion Materials consist of Defendant's proprietary employee training materials, proprietary guidance for conducting audits, proprietary policies, confidential employee personnel and pay data, and confidential and proprietary audit work papers, as well as the confidential and proprietary information of Defendant's clients.

WHEREAS, the parties agree that the Designated Produced Materials, including all information derived from the Designated Produced Materials, and the Designated Motion Materials should be filed permanently under seal on the ground that good cause exists to prevent the disclosure of this confidential, proprietary, and financial information. See, e.g., In re Adobe Systems Inc. Securities Litigation, 141 F.R.D. 155, 158 (N.D. Cal. 1992) (good cause exists when disclosure of proprietary or financial information would put a company as a competitive disadvantage); Hirschfeld v. Stone, 193 F.R.D. 175, 187 (S.D. N.Y. 2000) ("disclosure of confidential information is the quintessential type of irreparable harm that cannot be compensated or undone by money damages); Encyclopedia Brown Prod., Ltd. v. Home Box Office, Inc., 26 F. Supp 2d 606, 614 (S.D. N.Y. 1998) (that party would be irreparably harmed by disclosure of confidential business information supported sealing, even though documents dealt with business information dating back several years).

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereby stipulate, subject to Court approval, that the following materials/information, attached hereto, be filed permanently under seal:
